Urban Kitchen

WHAT IS THE URBAN KITCHEN?

It is the culinary hub Melbourne has been waiting for. Big, bright and modern, the Urban Kitchen is the city's new home for hands-on cooking classes by the food industry's brightest stars, offering:

- A true masterchef experience in a professional cooking school with 44 commercial grade cooking stations ensures everyone gets involved in hands-on cooking
- Private dining room + large sunny terrace with city views
- Experienced chefs and event managers to ensure your event is executed to perfection
- Access to a wide range of chefs and food personalities
- Tailor-made, bespoke events to suit your industry, business objectives, mission statement and goals
- Ability to include the nearby South Melbourne Market in our events.
- Flexible spaces, enabling activities for 12-100 guests
- Ample, easy parking and close to public transport

TEAM BUILDING

The Urban Kitchen creates innovative team building events designed in collaboration with our corporate clients to meet their specific business goals. Our events are also great fun.

WHY COOK WITH YOUR TEAM?

- Cooking creates a level playing field, taking people out of their corporate comfort zone
- A professional cooking station offers an original and interactive way to entertain and engage your team
- Kitchen teams create natural opportunities to test leadership and the ability to work with colleagues
- Participants take real skills away with them
- Team building events conclude with a dining event to enjoy the food created on the day
- The Urban Kitchen is available in all weather, all year.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES + CLIENT EVENTS

The Urban Kitchen is a fabulous venue for a fun, hands-on corporate event, culminating in a unique dining and party experience.

No request is too big or too small. Urban Kitchen is operated by the team at Bay Leaf Catering, one of Melbourne's most respected premium corporate caterers. We have a superb reputation for delicious food and fabulous events.
